

Kossara Marchinkova
Director of External Relations and Communications
Enel Green Power North America, Inc.

Kossara Marchinkova is the Director of External Relations and Communications for Enel Green Power North America, Inc. (EGP-NA).

Ms. Marchinkova began working for Enel in March 2005 responsible for managing and developing human resources, communications and corporate social responsibility (CSR) at the former Enel Maritza East 3 power plant in Bulgaria.

Since 2007, Ms. Marchinkova assumed management of processes related to internal and external communications, media relations and event management, CSR , publishing, and relations with associations and institutions for all Enel companies in Bulgaria.

Previously she was a professional employment consultant at Snelling Personnel Services, a radio journalist at Radio 99, worked with troubled youth at VisionQuest, the human resources manager at Nexcom, and taught psychology at American University Bulgaria (AUBG).

Ms. Marchinkova holds a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications with a minor in politics and international relations from AUBG and a Master of Science degree in psychology from Auburn University Montgomery. She also holds a post-graduate qualification in humanistic existential psychotherapy by the joint ATANOR program of the Medical University of Sofia and the Rome Institute for Humanistic-Existential Psychotherapy.

She is a member of the Public Relations Society of America, European Association of Communication Directors, the Bulgarian Association for Management and Human Resource Development, and an affiliate member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel Development. She is also a member of Psi Chi and Omicron Delta Kappa.

