

Stephen Champagne
Executive Vice President, Secretary, and General Counsel
Enel Green Power North America, Inc.

Since joining Enel Green Power North America, Inc. (EGP-NA) in 2004, Stephen Champagne has been working in the legal affairs, business development and human resources departments.

In addition to overseeing all EGP-NA legal activities Mr. Champagne currently plays an integral role in contract negotiations, including but not limited to power purchase agreements, purchase and sale agreements, and land agreements.

Prior to EGP-NA, Mr. Champagne spent 18 years as a partner at Curtis Thaxter LLC in Portland, Maine where he worked as outside counsel for EGP-NA.

In various capacities, Mr. Champagne has worked on the acquisition, development and financing of over 100 renewable energy projects. He has also advised utilities on their restructuring activities and foreign countries on renewable energy policy.

Mr. Champagne holds a Juris Doctor degree and bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota. He served as a judicial clerk for Justice David A. Nichols of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court.

